

Ito

Bright and happy, she enjoys English and often greets me. She has a good vocabulary, but sometimes forgets words when feeling under pressure.

Segawa

Has remembered many of the words from this term. In speed-answer games, he may be slower, but he tends to know most of the vocabulary.

Sasaki

Happy and enthusiastic. He knows many of the words and participates well in activities. Enjoys the games.

Aya Tanaka

Good at worksheets and games. Good vocabulary. Sometimes gets bored, but is alert again when asked directly.

Kenta Eda

Doesn't often put his hand up, but very able to answer questions when asked. Happy student, gets on well with his classmates.

Jun Hayashi

Lots of energy, and often calls out answers. Enjoys English, and although he sometimes makes mistakes, he tries again until he gets the right answer. Enjoys the games and worksheets.

Shizuka Kento

Rarely puts his hand up to answer a question, but knows many of the answers. A quiet member of the class, but enjoys the worksheets and games.

Kon Masaki

Very enthusiastic, and puts his hand up to answer most of the questions. Great vocabulary and good understanding.

Mai Yamaguchi

Not so forthcoming in answering questions, but mostly knows the answers. Gets a bit bored by vocabulary practice.

Yuuta Kobayashi

Likes English a lot, and greets me whenever I come. Good at the worksheets and games, and often helps out with demos.

Tomoaki Mikami

Really likes English, and tries hard. Maybe the most enthusiastic in the class, and tries to answer most of the questions. He is the class's happy commentary.

Takayuki Koike

One of the best at English in the class. Great vocabulary, and keen to answer. Great at games, worksheets and helps out with demos.

Ren Matsuda

Last year, he was very much in his own world, but now answers a few questions. He knows many of the answers, but doesn't reach out to give them. When asked directly, he often knows the answer. Really good at wordsearches.

Higurashi

Enjoyed the board games, and could answer some questions when prompted.

Natsuki Furusawa

Natsuki has had a lot of improvement this term.

She will repeat phrases and words when asked, and can answer questions such as "what color do you like?" quickly, with no fear. She laughs when I make a mistake with vocabulary cards, and can participate in the quick-fire memory quiz. Good at drawing.

Fumika Sekine

Enthusiastic, but sometimes overwhelmed by competitive games. Loves to take part in demonstrations. Weak reading. Good listening ability, but often answers in Japanese, even if asked for the English.

Yuki Kaneko

Knowledgeable and happy student. Helps her classmates by teaching words, and making sure the games run correctly.

Masaya Hara

Depending on his mood, he sometimes answer lots of questions, or hangs back. Good listening and vocabulary. Good at worksheets and games.
