

THE TODA CHRONICLE

2nd June 2011

National Donut Day is on the first Friday of June each year. This year it is on the 3rd of June.

It is to remember the women who gave donuts to the soldiers of World War 1. Later the day became a fund-raiser for people caught by The Great Depression.

Many supermarkets and donut shops in America offer donuts for free on this day.

later = 後で
 many = たくさんの
 marry = 結婚する
 married = 結婚された
 catch = 捕まえる
 caught = 捕まえた
 remember = 覚える
 to remember = 覚えるために
 offer = 提供する
 give = あげる
 gave = あげた

made of ~ = ~で作られた
 ~ meters tall = 高さは~メートル
 caught by = で捕まえた
 for free = 無料で
 on this day = その日に
 this year it is on ~ = 今年、(~日)にあります。

donut = ドーナツ
 couple = カップル
 soldier = 兵士
 World War 1 = 第一次世界大戦
 fund-raiser = 募金
 people = 人々
 The Great Depression = 大恐慌時代 (アメリカの) supermarkets = スーパー
 wedding = 結婚式
 world record = 世界記録
 royal wedding = ロイヤル・ウエディング、皇室の結婚

Donut wedding cake

What kind of cake do you want when you get married? One couple had a wedding cake made of donuts.

There were 1,818 donuts, and it was 1.6m tall!

It's a world record!

The Royal wedding donut

The doughboy
 (Donut
 character)

